Third Sunday in Lent

*Written by The Reverend Karen Horst
Produced by Presbyterian World Service & Development*

One: Change is coming, for God's plans are unfolding. God hears the desires of our hearts and chooses what is best for us.

All: God draws us into a deeper relationship, offering us compassion, mercy and vision.

One: When the Israelites begged God for a King to rule them instead of judges, God provided them Saul and then David.

All: God hears and responds to our plans as long as they honour God's will and ways.

One: While we don't always recognize it, sometimes our dreams can be distorted, harmful and not consistent with God's principles.

All: We praise God for the times in our lives when God has said "yes" and also when God has said "no."

One: Let us pray.

All: All-knowing God, we recognize that you know us better than we know ourselves. As you walk with us in our journey to Christian maturity, we know that you are providing us guidance and wisdom. Help us seek your ways and be patient in those times when you are correcting us, or guiding us toward a path which we have not considered. Forgive us for the times we resist the change you ask for and also for the times when we are impatient. Recognizing our limitations in seeing the whole picture, help us to put our trust in you. Help us to follow Christ's way as we pray. Amen.

Motherhood: A Joyful Blessing in Afghanistan

In Canada, the news of pregnancy often brings joy and hope to expecting mothers.

But for many women in Afghanistan, becoming a mother can be risky because it is difficult to access the necessary medical care to support pregnant women.

Guldasta felt fear when she learned she was pregnant. "I was pregnant three times," she shares. "Each time, I lost the baby in my first or second trimester."

A female health committee member encouraged Guldasta to visit a Presbyterian World Service & Development supported clinic. At the clinic, she learned about the causes of her miscarriages. With proper treatment and the care of a midwife, Guldasta's health and well-being improved. Eventually, she delivered a healthy baby in the clinic.

Support for PWS&D maternal health programs has allowed for the training of female health workers and the construction of delivery rooms in Afghanistan.

This Lenten season let us respond faithfully to Christ's call to help others lead healthier and stronger lives. Support for PWS&D can make a difference in the lives of women and children.
