PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

First Sunday in Lent

Produced by Presbyterian World Service & Development

One: We live in God's safe haven, in shelter provided by God.

All: God is our refuge and our strength and we trust in God.

One: We live with the promise that God is present when we face danger in the darkness of night or in the bright sun of midday.

All: God is our refuge and our strength. We trust in God

One: Those who love God, God will rescue; those who know God's name, God will protect.

All: God is our refuge and our strength. We trust in God.

One: God will satisfy us, and we will know God's salvation.

All: God is our refuge and our strength. We trust in God.

One: Let us pray.

All: We begin the Lenten journey trusting in you as our refuge and strength and assured of your never-ending care. In our joys and celebrations and in times of trial and temptation, you are present with us. Everyone who calls to you for help is saved through the suffering love of Jesus. We praise and adore you, O God, in and through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

"Rise and Shine"

The Lord told Noah
There's gonna be a floody, floody
The Lord told Noah
There's gonna be a floody, floody
Get those children out of the muddy, muddy,
children of the Lord

The animals, they came,
they came in by twosies twosies
The animals, they came,
they came in by twosies, twosies
Elephants and kangaroosie, roosies,
children of the Lord

It rained and poured
for forty daysies, daysies
It rained and poured
for forty daysies, daysies
Almost drove those animals crazy, crazy,
children of the Lord

The sun came out,
and dried up the landy, landy
The sun came out,
and dried up the landy, landy
Everything was fine and dandy, dandy,
children of the Lord

So, rise and shine,
and give God the glory, glory
Rise and shine,
and give God the glory, glory
Rise and shine, and give God the glory, glory
Children of the Lord

Kitchen Gardens: A Source of Joy and Pride

To see fresh carrots, spinach and tomatoes spilling over her serving bowls, it's hard to believe Mirzadi owns no farmland and had no previous experience growing her own food.

Mirzadi lives in Badin, Pakistan where poor soil quality due to flooding has left many farmers unable to cultivate plentiful harvests.

Mirzadi depended on her sons' income to travel to market and buy produce—but the expense became unbearable.

A PWS&D project is teaching families like Mirzadi's sustainable agricultural practices that improve soil fertility and crop yields and build resilience to environmental disasters.

After learning about growing fresh, nutritious food in kitchen gardens, Mirzadi prepared her own backyard garden with the seeds she received through the program.

"My family is regularly consuming nutritious food from my garden," she reports, proud that her work ensures a sustainable source of nourishment and a way to support her family for years to come.

This Lenten season faithfully respond to Christ's call to serve the poor. Through support of PWS&D, we can help vulnerable families overcome hunger.
